

Jacana is a new recruitment tool that uses predictive analytics and big data technologies, to scan the maze of the network automatically and 'hunt' passive candidates who perfectly match the specific company and its employees along with the required skillsets. As a result, HR departments find our process to be most efficient, quick and highly accurate in matching candidates to available positions.

SAFEMOBILE'S App & Platform delivers a comprehensive end to end content filtering and protection solution for mobile devices. SafeMobile lets you access all the applications, services and content you need and none of the other stuff. Our Community App Store and our customizable web profiles deliver the things you need and block all the rest

Has developed the "Graphic Artist Robot", a SaaS cloud based solution. Fully automated creation of Ad-Block (Block/offer) in seconds enables retailers to self-produce ads/offers without the expense and time of a graphic artist.

WONDERTIP offers solutions for earwax removal and management both for professional ear care givers and home care users. The patented technology of WonderTip™ enables the flexible tip design to facilitate ear wax collection with minimal risk. It is easy to use, WonderTip is a single use device guaranteeing maximal protection and hygiene of the ear.

The world's first all-in-one digital fishing device provides anglers with real-time strike notifications, sonar information and action moment videos from the tip of the fishing line directly to a smartphone or tablet. Spydro automatically edits video based on event triggers and seamlessly logs each session information for smart replay, analysis and sharing.

AG-Sense specializes in the optimization of Decision Support System (DSS) in the agricultural field. The automated system measures, collects, monitors and analyzes information from different sensors that help the team make decisions, each according to its needs and at different points of time.

Articoolo uses the power of artificial intelligence to create unique textual content in a flash. We are developing a content creation platform that can help organizations and individuals reduce the time and efforts they spend on content creation. The solution is affordable and efficient.

"SWATHLY is the world's first B2B marketplace designed through our unique indexing system and technology to make it easy to for printers to find the best buyers and sellers of specific products and services worldwide, as well as to offer the best advice regarding how to thrive in the $1 Trillion global print industry marketplace."

Easy Carry is a modular assembled roof rack that is light and durable. The roof rack can be attached to any vehicle to transport luggage, furniture, etc. The product has the potential for great success in the market and is already available for sale in the USA.

KISSLEV is a revolutionary automated portal created for socially minded people to express gratitude and donate to hospitals. It can be directed specifically to development based on an international digital platform. These portals also serve as a smart management tool that makes it possible to see who the outstanding employees are.

SOCKEE is a unique device, designed to help an individual to remain independent and avoid the frustration of putting on tight and/or thick socks or hose. This lightweight device allows the user freedom and is simple to operate.

Filterlex Medical Ltd. is a medical device startup in the cardiovascular field. The goal is to develop the next generation embolic protection device for reducing the risk of stroke and other complications during catheter-based structural heart procedures. The device concept and unique structure was created out of deep understanding and knowledge of the unmet need and current products limitations and weaknesses.

Croosing is shifting the internet from manual to automatic - and accelerating the conversion of followers into business. Croosing evolves from the active and solo experience of surfing, into a passive and mass experience of Croosing, allowing people to lead & share their internet browsing with unlimited numbers of followers, LIVE or On-Demand.

JettaPlus.com is a marketplace where travelers with non refundable but transferable flight tickets can recoup some of their costs by selling them to online shoppers in search of great deals.

INTERVYO (Powered by IBM) is an innovative Tel Aviv based B2B SAAS start-up revolutionizing the recruitment industry. Intervyo is the world's first automated interview simulation system, that screens candidates for recruiters and accurately predicts their suitability for the job.

SKYSAVER is a Controlled Descent Device that uses a fire resistant steel cable to lower you down the outside of a building at a steady rate of 6 ft/second up to 260 ft. It safely holds someone between 66-300lbs. Its backpack design provides quick and easy so you can get into and out of the SkySaver as quickly as possible. We are already generating and growing revenues.

Urban Aeronautics Ltd. has developed advanced aerodynamic technologies that are the basis for an entirely new family of internal rotor (ducted fan) aircraft known as Fancraft™. UrbanAero capitalizes on its extensive portfolio of Intellectual Property via two subsidiary companies, Tactical Robotics Ltd. and Metro Skyways Ltd., each of which is developing unique Fancraft™ for specific markets.

The feelter widget can be installed on any website easily and quickly by adding a short line of script anywhere on your website. feelter's advanced technology "extracts" texts from multiple resources, analyzes its value and relevance and then displays the most current and accurate information to what customers are looking for. The result is that shoppers don't need to leave the site until they complete their purchase.

CONNECTOO is a mobile communication APP, built with educators and kindergarten teachers to seamlessly fit into the teacher's daily routine, and facilitate interactive communication with parents. CONNECTOO provides updated information on each child in real time to ensure that the child is healthy and safe.

CODIPARK is an APP that connects drivers with multiple parking lots across cities. By providing information about location, availability and prices. CodiPark facilitates smart, easy and efficient parking payment at all times without ever having to stand in line to use a payment station in parking lots.

Crayze is an app that creates hyper engaging, ephemeral experiences between brands and consumers. Sponsored "Crayzes" will appear on the app offering exciting videos, disruptive discounts, promotions and other branded experiences, for very limited periods of time.